JANET HUBBARD, JENEAN WILSON EARN CRP® DESIGNATION

Sacramento, CA – (June 16, 2014) -- Worldwide ERC® has announced that Janet Hubbard, Senior Inbound Referral Coordinator and Jenean Wilson, Outbound Referral Coordinator, both with Lyon Real Estate, have earned the Certified Relocation Professional (CRP®) designation.

Worldwide ERC is the workforce mobility association comprised of individuals concerned with domestic and international employee mobility.

“Successfully completing the CRP® exam is a rigorous endeavor. It demonstrates not only a solid command of very complex subject matter, but dedication to one’s professional development and the employee mobility industry overall,” said CRP® Certification Review Board Chairman Steven M. John, CRP, GMS, RELO Direct®, Inc.”

The CRP® program was introduced in 1990 to formally recognize relocation professionals' knowledge of the U.S. domestic workforce mobility process. There are currently over 3,700 Worldwide ERC® members who hold the CRP® designation. CRP®s retain their designations by maintaining membership in the association and earning 30 recertification credit hours within each three-year period following their initial certification, ensuring they remain current on evolving industry trends.
